

ALW Auction

Auction Rules: You may bid on as many of the auction items as you wish. Send us an e-mail to alastingworld@sbcglobal.net, telling us what item you are bidding on, and giving us your HIGHEST BID on that item. We will contact you in a reply e-mail to let you know we have received your bid. If you are outbid on an item, we will contact you and let you know what price the item is currently at. If you wish to raise your bid after being outbid, you may do so by e-mailing us again. We will contact you in a reply e-mail to tell you we have received your bid.

Photos of each auction item will be available on our website this coming weekend. You can also request to see an item in an e-mail to us.

Auction winners will be announced at Kevin's Birthday Bash on October 7, and winners not at the Bash will be contacted on Monday, October 9, by e-mail. Auction items will be shipped to the winners the week of October 9.

Note: Those present at the Birthday Bash will have the opportunity to place a final bid on any auction item!

Except where noted, all money raised from auction items will go (with Kevin Richardson's approval) to help send needy Appalachian kids to summer camp in 2007, totally free-of-charge!

IMPORTANT: You will see that a few numbered items are not described below. We are still waiting for those auction items to be in our hands before we release the information about them. We will update you on any or all of these items as soon as we have them. We don't want to announce items we don't actually have in hand (yet)!
