

Dear ALW Angels --

As y'all know, Nick has been appointed as a special ambassador to the United Nations for the Year of the Dolphin. Nick will help raise awareness about dolphins being endangered in the wild. In addition, Nick will record a new song and video, titled "Believe," with all proceeds going to this project. When named U.N. special ambassador, Nick said: "I am honored to offer my resources and my music to help the United Nations save dolphins and their habitats."

To help us raise money for needy kids, we've got a 'swimmingly' fun NICK CARTER auction item up for bid on eBay!

We've got Nick, our very own 'cooleo' SURFER DAWG DUDE! He's a Build-a-Bear dog, dressed in blue, knee-length 'baggies,' a muscle tee and a Hawaiian print shirt. He's got his shades around his neck, and he's armed with his very own, retro surfboard - perfect for wave catching ability. He's 'amped, stoked and psyched' and ready to yell 'Cowabunga' for a 'full-on session' on some 'epic and bodacious' waves! When the last wave has gone out and it's time to chill on the beach, Nick Dawg can change into his jeans, his personalized BSB shirt (made for him during the last BSB Tour), and some black high top tennis shoes. Then he'll strap on his guitar and serenade you while you eat gummy snacks (shaped like dolphins and other sea life) from a retro BSB mug! What a perfect ending to a 'frothin' great 'surfari' adventure!

But BEST OF ALL ---- Nick Dawg comes with AN AUTHENTIC, OFFICIAL, DOLPHIN ADOPTION KIT PERSONALLY SIGNED BY NICK CARTER!!!!!! What a great way for you to share this special Year of the Dolphin with Nick - by adopting your own dolphin!

Nick Dawg, the mug of treats and the SIGNED ADOPTION KIT can be yours if you are the highest bidder on eBay. Bids will be taken for 7 days, and at the end of the auction, the winner will have 7 days to send us payment. If payment is not received in 7 days, the package will go to the second highest bidder.
